DuPont™ Corian® Introduces Sinks Inspired by Italian Design
New Corian® Vaso Collection Fuses Contemporary Design and European Charm

CHICAGO, April 11 - 13, 2008 – Those seeking sinks as beautiful as the spaces they find them in must see the new DuPont™ Corian® Vaso Collection, premiering at the Kitchen/Bath Industry Show (K/BIS). The two new sleek, angular sinks, Angolo and Metro, fuse contemporary style with European elegance and are available in four hues.

“The Angolo and Metro sinks were designed to help create a clean, modern ambiance, which is so on-trend,” said Maureen McGeehan, marketing manager - DuPont Surfaces. “We’re bringing best in show designs from Europe and creating American classics.”

The Corian® Vaso Collection is available in two sizes, to fit both small and large areas. The smaller square, Metro, is 15-3/4 inches square, and the larger rectangular sink, Angolo, is 27-1/2 inches long by 15-3/2 inches wide. The eight-inch deep sinks can be joined beneath countertops made with Corian®, creating a uniform, seamless surface appearance. Non-porous and stain- and moisture-resistant, sinks in Corian® are easy-to-clean and will look like new for years to come.
